THE CASE

1Password has raised $920M (last at $6.8B) and is widely seen as a 2026 IPO lock. Enterprise identity/access security is unrepresented in Formula E, and 1Password's North American brand maps to Andretti. A pre-IPO multi-year deal builds enterprise credibility while entering an uncontested category.

WHY NOW

Pre-IPO brand investment plus an open category in a growing, enterprise-friendly championship.
